Poster Presentations

Posters and/or research presentations which visually identify and represent programs or projects and display information that helps conference participants grasp concepts or findings at a glance and encourages discussion of the details of the work with the author. Poster sessions occur during the resource fair and provide an opportunity to discuss research findings and to network with colleagues. Poster presentation participants ARE NOT registered to attend conference activities, please complete registration if planning to attend conference activities.

Breakout Session Presentations

Presentations are 60-minutes in length and must include a question and answer period. Primary Audience: people working in behavioral health. Previously, conference participants have requested engaging activities during presentation sessions. Copies of slides/PowerPoint are required four weeks prior to conference date, additional handouts are recommended on the day of the conference. Participation in conference and lunch are included for up to three presenters per breakout session.
